

MAY 23, 2017

NIGHTCAP WITH AMY AND EVELYN GUTTMANN, OTR/L

Neurodevelopmental Specialists

Teleconference Event Geared Towards Empowering and Educating the Community

Join us on May 23, 2017 at 9 PM on a teleconference call that will address three topics raised by clients and parents:

- How do I determine what kind of professional I need to approach to help my child with their learning, emotional or behavioral difficulties?
- Tantrum vs. Meltdowns – what are the differences and what techniques can I use to respond appropriately?
- Developmental dos and don'ts of baby equipment – what practical and immediate tools can I use to prevent sensory integration and regulation difficulties in my child?

EVENT GEARED TOWARDS EDUCATING AND EMPOWERING COMMUNITY

To submit a question for future conferences, please email us at:
foundation@handsonotrehab.com

As requested by the community

Information that will educate and
empower parents,
teachers, and all family members

Join us in our “Hands on Approach” to helping families, schools, and community

Minimum Donation: $15

For more information and to register:

www.handsonotrehab.com

212-884-9101

Recordings of this conference will be available

100% of proceeds will be going directly towards children in need